RUINED BY MORPHINE.

Crazed by the use of morphine, coand whisky, Dr. Floyd Lamott Dupforth, a dentist at No. 7 east 125th street, piled his effects on the floor of apartments and set fire to them. He n went out and told the police. fire was extinguished before any terial damage was done, and the unmate man was taken to the east 26th street station and locked up.

At 4 a. m. Wednesday policeman Richard McKenna was standing at 125th street and Fifth avenue, when he was approached by the doctor.

"What are you doing out on such a merning as this?" asked the policeman. On, I am just taking a little walk," auswered the doctor. Then he added: "You just wait around Lere a few moments and you will see some fun. I have just set fire to the nouse."

The policeman whistled for assistance and was joined by Policeman Driscoil. They burried to the house. followed by the dentist. The two po-

The story of the dentist is a pitiful For years he has been addicted to the use of morphine, cocaine and whisky. His habits became so bad that last September his wife and daughter left him. The daughter went to New Rochelle, where she is teaching school, and the wife went to Ithaca.

The doctor is a graduate of Cornell University and was considered a man of exceptional education and well up in his profession. He is now a mental Danforth was arranged in the Harlem Court yesterday morning, before Magistrate Cornell. He taiked irrationally. When asked for an explanation of his conduct he said:

"The Good Book tells us that we must all work out our own salvation, and that's what I was trying to do." "I fear you must be out of your senses," observed the Magistrate. "I suppose I am," answered the
